Individual is notified that they are disapproved for Relief/Restoration Review Process firearm ownership due to mental health Public Workflow disqualification criteria. Individual will contact DHMH designee in the Community Forensic Aftercare Program (CFAP) via phone, email or form submittal. The individual submits the Application for Relief of Firearm Disqualification form to begin process to obtain the DHMH certificate affirming applicant's mental competence to possess a firearm. Public Community Forensic Aftercare Program (CFAP) CFAP will contact the individual requesting: an interview with the individual, character support attestation, documentation of treatment from physician or therapist or other necessary documentation to conduct relief review. The Clinical CFAP Director/designee will make a decision based upon submitted documentation and send results to the MSP and the individual. Maryland State Public Police (MSP) Licensing Division If application is approved and certificate is granted MSP will allow for firearm ownership. If the application is denied, individual may MHA-Office of appeal to DHMH for an additional review. If so, DHMH will inform Forensic Services OAH that the individual has requested a hearing. Community Forensic Aftercare Program (CFAP) Public Office of MHA-Office of Forensic Hearing (OAH) Community Forensic Aftercare Program (CFAP) A hearing review will be conducted by the OAH with participation from the individual and CFAP staff NICS that conducted the initial review. The OAH Public contact DPSCS/CJIS the MSP, DHMH MHA-Office of and the Forensic Services individual Community Forensic with the Aftercare Program HMIS review DHMH/CFAP will notify HMIS who will in hearing turn notify CJIS and ultimately trigger decision. NICS that a certificate was granted and a Maryland State person is no longer prohibited for mental Police (MSP) health reasons to possess a firearm. Licensing Division